The programme was organised with the objective of creating awareness among students about the importance of planting and protecting trees for environmental sustainability. The volunteers were sensitised to the role of trees in improving air quality, reducing environmental pollution and contributing towards a greener and healthier environment.

As part of the initiative, the student volunteers actively participated in the plantation activity and planted saplings at the selected location. The activity provided students with an opportunity to contribute directly towards environmental conservation while developing a sense of responsibility towards nature and the community.

The programme was organised under the mentorship of Dr. Kiran Kumar M.N, Assistant Professor, HOD-BCA, Mrs. Tejashwini T.S., Assistant Professor & NSS Programme Officer, BMSCCM, and Lt. Hitesh Kumar R., Associate NCC Officer. The active participation volunteers contributed to the successful conduct of the programme.

Objectives of the Event

1. To create environmental awareness among students about the importance of trees and forests.
2. To promote tree plantation as a means of improving air quality and reducing environmental pollution.
3. To encourage environmental responsibility and sustainable practices among students.

4. To provide hands-on participation in environmental conservation activities.
5. To promote a greener and healthier environment through active student involvement.

Outcome of the Event

The Plantation Drive successfully enhanced the environmental awareness and sense of responsibility among the participating students. The volunteers gained practical experience in contributing to environmental conservation through tree plantation.

The programme motivated students to understand the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance, improving air quality and creating a sustainable environment. It also encouraged volunteers to take greater responsibility for protecting nature and promoting environmental awareness within the community.

Overall, the event was a meaningful social outreach and environmental sustainability initiative, fostering active student participation and strengthening their commitment towards creating a greener, cleaner and healthier environment.

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA

Date: 21st June 2025

Venue: BMSCCM Campus

Organised by: NSS CLUB-BMS College of Commerce and Management (BMSCCM)

Resource Person: Ms. Savitha, Yoga Instructor, Vivekananda Yoga Kendra

Participants: Students of BMSCCM

On the occasion of the 11th International Day of Yoga, celebrated on 21st June 2025, BMS College of Commerce and Management (BMSCCM) organised a Yoga Practice Session for the students of the institution. International Yoga Day is observed across the world to create awareness about the importance of yoga and its manifold benefits for physical, mental and emotional well-being.

The theme for the 11th International Day of Yoga was "Yoga for One Earth, One Health," highlighting the close connection between individual well-being and the health of the planet. The theme also reflects the Indian ethos of "Sarve Santu Niramaya", meaning "May all be free from disease."

The yoga session was conducted under the guidance of Ms. Savitha, Yoga Instructor, Vivekananda Yoga Kendra. Students actively participated in the session and practised various yoga postures and exercises under her guidance. The session emphasised the importance of incorporating yoga into daily life as a means of promoting physical fitness, mental calmness and overall well-being.

The programme provided an opportunity for students and staff to understand the significance of maintaining a balanced and healthy lifestyle and encouraged them to make yoga a regular part of their daily routine.

Objectives of the Event

1. To create awareness about the importance and benefits of practising yoga.
2. To promote physical and mental well-being among students.
3. To encourage healthy lifestyle practices and regular physical activity.
4. To develop awareness about stress management through yoga and mindfulness practices.

5. To promote the theme “Yoga for One Earth, One Health” by highlighting the relationship between individual well-being and a healthy environment.

Outcome of the Event

The Yoga Day programme successfully created awareness among students about the physical, mental and emotional benefits of yoga. Participants gained practical exposure to yoga practices and understood the importance of regular exercise and maintaining a balanced lifestyle.

The session encouraged students to incorporate yoga into their daily routines for improved fitness, concentration, relaxation and overall well-being. The programme also reinforced the message that individual health and environmental well-being are interconnected, in keeping with the theme of the International Day of Yoga.

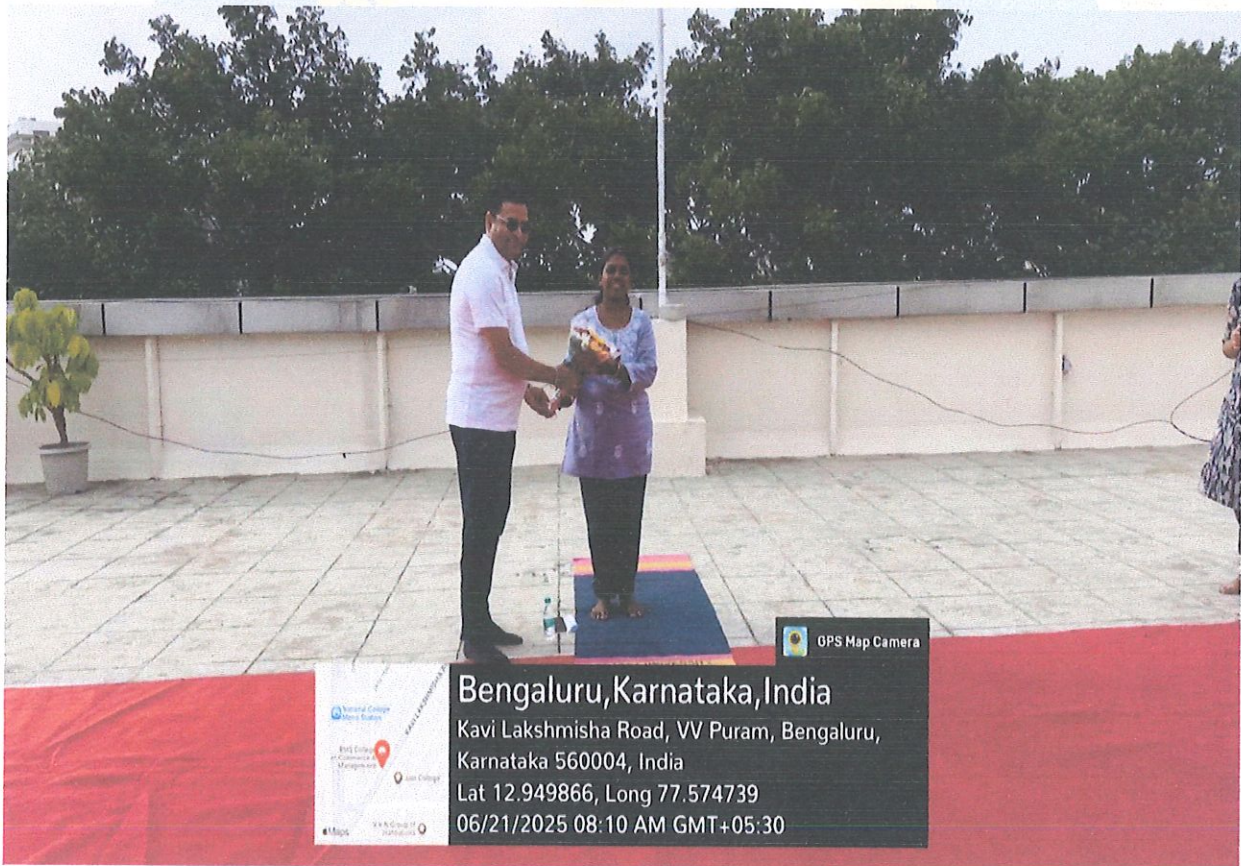

Overall, the event was successfully conducted with enthusiastic participation from the students of BMSCCM and contributed towards promoting a healthier, more balanced and wellness-oriented campus community.

REPORT ON NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME – SPECIAL CAMP 2025–26

Date: 2nd February 2026 – 8th February 2026

Venue: Government Primary School, Kachamaranahalli Village, Sarjapur Road, Bengaluru District

Organised by: National Service Scheme (NSS), BMSCCM

Number of NSS Volunteers: 40

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of BMS College of Commerce and Management (BMSCCM) organised a Special Camp for the academic year 2025–26 from 2nd February 2026 to 8th February 2026 at the Government Primary School, Kachamaranahalli Village, Sarjapur Road, Bengaluru District. A total of 40 NSS volunteers actively participated in the week-long camp.

The NSS Special Camp provided volunteers with a valuable opportunity to engage with the local community and participate in activities aimed at social service and community development. The camp focused on encouraging students to understand the needs of the community, work collaboratively and contribute meaningfully towards the development of the adopted locality.

The experience at Kachamaranahalli enabled the volunteers to discover and develop their individual capabilities while learning the importance of teamwork, cooperation and collective responsibility. Working together as a team helped the volunteers strengthen their leadership and interpersonal skills while developing greater sensitivity towards community needs.

The camp also provided an opportunity for the volunteers to understand and practise the core philosophy of NSS, reflected in its motto “Not Me But You.” Through active participation in community-oriented activities, the volunteers experienced the importance of placing the interests and welfare of society above individual interests.

Objectives of the Event

1. To develop social responsibility among NSS volunteers through active participation in community service.
2. To promote the spirit of “Not Me But You” by encouraging volunteers to work for the welfare of the community.

3. To develop teamwork, leadership and cooperation among the participating volunteers.
4. To sensitise students to community needs and encourage them to contribute towards local development.
5. To provide practical exposure to social service and help volunteers understand their role as responsible citizens.
6. To promote personality development by enhancing confidence, communication, coordination and problem-solving abilities.

Outcome of the Event

The NSS Special Camp was a meaningful and enriching experience for the 40 participating volunteers. The camp helped students develop a stronger sense of social responsibility, teamwork, leadership and community engagement.

The volunteers gained practical exposure to community-oriented activities and developed a better understanding of the challenges and needs of the local community. Working collectively helped them recognise their individual strengths while also learning the importance of cooperation and mutual support.

The camp successfully reinforced the NSS motto “Not Me But You” by encouraging volunteers to prioritise community welfare and service. It also contributed to the overall personality development of the students, fostering empathy, discipline, confidence and a spirit of selfless service.

Overall, the NSS Special Camp at Kachamaranahalli Village served as an effective community outreach and extension initiative, strengthening the bond between the institution and the community while inspiring students to become responsible and socially committed citizens.
