

REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Date: 1st September 2025

Venue: BMS College of Commerce and Management (BMSCCM)

Programme: Blood Donation Camp

Number of Donors: 100

A Blood Donation Camp was organised at BMS College of Commerce and Management (BMSCCM) on 1st September 2025. The programme was conducted with the aim of creating awareness among students and staff about the importance of voluntary blood donation and encouraging them to contribute towards this noble social cause.

The camp commenced at 10:00 a.m. and continued smoothly throughout the day. A large number of students, teaching staff and non-teaching staff members came forward voluntarily to donate blood. The participants were provided with the necessary guidance and support during the donation process.

The programme highlighted that voluntary blood donation is a simple yet significant act that can help save lives. The initiative also emphasised the importance of community participation and humanitarian service. As a token of appreciation for their valuable contribution, the blood donors were provided with refreshments and certificates.

The enthusiastic participation of the college community reflected a strong sense of social responsibility and willingness to contribute towards the welfare of society.

Objectives of the Event

1. To create awareness among students and staff about the importance of voluntary blood donation.
2. To encourage voluntary participation in blood donation and humanitarian activities.
3. To promote social responsibility and a spirit of community service among the college community.
4. To highlight the importance of blood donation in supporting patients and saving lives.
5. To motivate students and staff to participate in similar social welfare initiatives in the future.

Outcome of the Event

The Blood Donation Camp successfully created awareness among students and staff about the importance and social value of voluntary blood donation. The active participation of the college community demonstrated a strong spirit of compassion, social responsibility and community service.

The programme encouraged participants to contribute towards humanitarian causes and helped foster a culture of voluntary service and social commitment within the institution. The successful conduct of the camp also motivated students and staff to actively participate in similar community-oriented initiatives in the future.

Overall, the Blood Donation Camp was a meaningful social outreach initiative that contributed towards creating awareness and encouraging the college community to support a noble cause aimed at helping those in need.
