HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

The name Prometheus is a reference to PROMETHEUS, a Greek Titan who stole knowledge from the Greek Gods and passed it on to the common people. We chose the name 'Prometheus for our literary and reading club as it perfectly represents the goals of our club. For us Prometheus is a platform where we can meet to read and write, discuss social, political and moral issues and express ourselves freely. This quest for expression is what led us to the idea of Paperphilia, a newsletter which would serve as a voice for us, by us. Series of brainstorming sessions later we were ready with the content and outline of our newsletter. We take great pride in sharing that the entire concept of the newsletter, from scratch to finish was by us. We worked as a team and will continue to bring meaningful and insightful content in our subsequent editions as well.
